

CREATIVE WOMEN OF PINNACLE PEAK

NEWSLETTER

FEBRUARY, 2008

Hello Ladies,

Please excuse this feeble attempt at a CWPP newsletter. Knowing it is not up to the standard to which you have become accustomed, I hope it will be informative. Work on the CWPP website is temporarily at a standstill. Plans are in the making to have it updated ASAP.

THE STAR SPANGLED SPRING FASHION SHOW (FEB 23rd) is just around the corner. Joanie Burchmore, along with her able Committee and Event Producer has been putting in long hours getting a spectacular, 'can't miss' extravaganza together. I have even thrown in an idea or two myself. Our goal is to continue in the fine tradition of past fashion events with some innovative and creative surprises. Creativity from our members continues to surface daily. Joanie and I have even enlisted our handy husbands to join in the fun and help us 'create'.

Joanie and I are very excited with the format, the wonderful silent auction items, and the 'best yet' raffle of Themed Tablescapes.

Surely by this time, all of you have pulled in friends and family to attend. If not, there is still time to send in reservations, making this fashion show one of the best attended in CWPP history.

In slow economic times, such as now, charitable agencies suffer substantially. If we hope to meet our charitable funding goals, our members need to come together to make the next two events successful. As you know, the fashion show is themed patriotic. With your support, we can proudly honor our country and honor our commitment to help those less fortunate in our valley community.

Hope to see everyone at the Fashion Show....You don't want to miss it and you will not be disappointed!

THE GRAND BALLROOM

Westin Kierland

The Fashion Show Committee has dedicated a tremendous amount of time and talent to dazzle and dazzle guests at this year's Star Spangled Spring event.

Our honorary Guest, Jennifer Croll, has been dubbed "Scottsdale's boutique mogul." A fashion-forward entrepreneur, we are honored to feature fashions from her store, as well as introduce her to our membership. Additionally we proudly welcome award winning radio and television star Pat McMahon, an editorial commentator, host of the "The McMahon Group" and "The God Show", and recipient of seven Emmys.

We are still taking reservations and silent auction items. Your help and support and needed, and deeply appreciated.

To ensure the success of this event, let's reach for the stars-and stripes too!

WELCOME MAGGIE REES

Thank you Susan Byrd, for sponsoring Maggie Rees.

Maggie (Maria Magdalena) was born in Mexico and raised in Southern California and Northern Utah. She has been living in Scottsdale with her husband, Dave, and their 16 year old son Joshua, for the past two years.

The smallest member of the family is their Jack Russell named "Jeepy". While living in Utah, they opened an art gallery and frame shop. Maggie and Dave opened their second gallery and frame shop a year a half ago, here in Scottsdale at the foothills of Pinnacle Park. Maggie and her husband enjoy working together as a team and have been doing that for some time. Maggie is thrilled to be involved with Creative Women of Pinnacle Peak and has joined the Major Grants Committee.

For over thirteen years, Dr. Marsal, a member of the International Academy of Cosmetic Dermatology, has guided her patients toward rejuvenation procedures, offering several non-surgical and non-invasive treatments.
