Homeward Bound
Sheets and Blanket Drive

At the November luncheon CWPP collected and donated 1563 diapers and 1080 baby wipes to Homeward Bound. They expressed their extreme gratitude for our overwhelming response and generosity.

This month we are collecting sheets and blankets. Sheets should be either twin or double in solid colors.

Monthly Newsletter Mailings ~ Change in Policy

Effective January 1st, the CWPP monthly Newsletter will continue to be emailed to all members, as well as posted on our CWPP website, www.cwpp.org.

However, it will NOT be mailed to the entire membership via the postal service.

Any member who wants it mailed is asked to submit 5 self-addressed, stamped envelopes. The committee is happy to print and mail to all members who request it.

Please mail your self-addressed, stamped envelopes to CWPP
 8711 E. Pinnacle Peak Road, PMB 244
 Scottsdale, AZ. 85255
 Attn.: Newsletter

This change of policy will reflect a savings of approximately $900 per year.

CWPP Joins Facebook

New Member Jackie Rose has volunteered to create and implement a Facebook page for CWPP. Accessing Facebook expands our outreach to family and friends by enabling members to quickly share CWPP events and news.

Jackie has also offered to assist any CWPP member who is interested in joining Facebook. Contact Jackie at Jackiearose@gmail.com.

Welcome

Susan Card and Joan Crabbe

Please welcome returning member Susan Card and new member Joan Crabbe.

Susan moved to AZ. in 1988 from Edina, MN. and is a multi-talented artist whose works include bronze sculptures, jewelry and oil paintings. Visit Susan's website, www.susancard.com.

Joan is from Brantford, Ontario, Canada, moved to WI. in 1972 and retired to AZ. in 1996. She started knitting as a teenager, and her business, fashionsbyjoan, can be seen on www.etsy.com. Joan can also be found walking her two golden retrievers, playing golf or at her summer cottage on Lake Erie in Canada.

THANK YOU Kim and Pat

Special thanks to Kim (Dieska) for chairing the Capital Grille Cocktail Party and to Pat (Kolander) for organizing the Membership Boutique at last month's luncheon. Both were successful events thoroughly enjoyed by our membership.
