Gregory Lawrence Singer, son of Jane Poucel, age 48, passed away after complications from surgery. He was born in Livingston, N.J. but grew up in CO. He settled in Flagstaff and married the love of his life, Jennifer. Greg had an intense love for learning that never ceased. It drove his creativity to become a consultant to building new businesses through his innovative ideas. His main interest was in the field of health care. He attended Northern Arizona University and the University of Colorado. His love for people enabled him to mentor and encourage those who sought his advice. He will be remembered by the many people whose lives he touched.

Eric Christian Ringdahl, son of Polly Ringdahl, age 45, avid outdoorsman, devoted husband, father and beloved son, died in a cycling accident in Carlsbad CA. He leaves wife Amy, children: Cole (age 9), Tyra Soleil (8), Cayman (5). Eric shared his passion for the outdoors with his family on trips to Joshua Tree National Park, local beaches and skiing throughout the West. As Director, North and Central America at Cytori Therapeutics, he led the development of ground-breaking cell-based therapies that will change the way medicine is practiced. Born in Melrose MA and raised in North Oaks, MN, Eric was a graduate of Breck School (Minneapolis), received his BS from University of Wisconsin Madison and MBA from University of Denver.

Have a great summer, and I look forward to seeing you in September.
